The Winter Park Art Festival is a premier two-day celebration of fine art and handcrafted excellence, showcasing an exceptional collection of original work from talented local and national artists. From painting, sculpture, photography, ceramics, glass, and wood to contemporary craft and mixed media, this event highlights creativity across a wide range of mediums in an inspiring mountain setting.

Hosted in one of Colorado's most beloved year-round destinations, Winter Park is known for its scenic beauty, luxury residences, vibrant tourism, and loyal, supportive community. Unlike many Front Range towns, this is one of the only art festivals in the area throughout the year, making it a highly anticipated opportunity for residents and visitors to engage with artists and shop from enthusiastic, ready-to-buy audiences.

Located just 90 minutes from Denver, Winter Park attracts affluent homeowners, second-home residents, and steady summer tourism. There is real spending power flowing through town, and the opportunity to connect a diverse array of artisans with the community is exceptional. The festival takes place at Cooper Creek Square in the heart of Downtown Winter Park. This highly visible pedestrian plaza sits directly along Main Street, Highway 40, the primary corridor through Grand County. Positioned in the center of downtown and surrounded by restaurants, breweries, boutique shops, and luxury lodging, the venue is also conveniently located on the free bus route, ensuring strong foot traffic and easy accessibility.

Attendees will experience a vibrant artisan marketplace along with two days of great free live music while enjoying drinks and cocktails in a lively mountain atmosphere. The combination of art, music, dining, and community creates an environment where artists thrive and prosper.
