Exhibitor Details:

Boulder's Premier Holiday Shopping Tradition. Step into the holiday season at the Boulder Holiday Gift Festival, a celebrated annual marketplace showcasing the very best in local artistry, craftsmanship, and creative entrepreneurship. Each year, the Boulder YMCA transforms into a vibrant indoor holiday marketplace featuring more than 100 talented exhibitors presenting an exceptional collection of handmade goods and original creations. Shoppers discover one-of-a-kind gifts including fine art, jewelry, home décor, apparel, specialty foods, and unique seasonal items, all thoughtfully created by Colorado artists and makers. Known for attracting a loyal and highly supportive Boulder community, the event draws enthusiastic holiday shoppers seeking meaningful, locally made gifts while supporting small businesses during the peak buying season.

Conveniently located along busy 28th Street (Highway 36), just one block north of Pearl Street, the Boulder YMCA provides a central and highly accessible location in one of Colorado's most vibrant and affluent communities. The entire gymnasium is transformed into a festive holiday shopping destination designed to encourage visitors to browse, connect with artists, and shop throughout the day. Live music and a welcoming, family-friendly atmosphere create an engaging experience that keeps shoppers onsite longer and increases vendor exposure.

The Boulder Holiday Gift Festival offers vendors an outstanding opportunity to build brand recognition, connect directly with engaged local buyers, and maximize holiday sales in a comfortable indoor setting. This long-running event consistently attracts strong attendance and has become Boulder's largest and most established holiday craft show.
